DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-6, 17-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schmidt et al (5,562,827) in view of McDemott, Jr. et al (5,147,541).

Rejection of claims 1-6, 17-26 had been discussed in paper of 3/24/03, and is maintained. Newly added claims 27-33 are combinations of limitations included in the group of claims 1-6 and 17-26, and are therefore also covered in the previous rejection.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 8/25/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Schmidt ('541) fails to suggest the sheath of a polymer film, the Examiner agrees that the sheath as claimed is not disclosed, however, the rejection is based on the combination of Schmidt and McDemott et al. ('827), and additional spiral wound filter structure is disclosed in Schmidt. Applicant also argues that McDemott et al fail to teach the "overlap" of the polymer film, and the fusion on the area of overlap. Reference '827 does teach "overlapping windings" of the polymer core or laminate, producing a sheath of varying thickness, and addition of multiple layer of the core or laminated is also disclosed (column 3, lines 4-30). As to fusion of the overlapping layer of polymer film (laminate), '827 teaches that the thermoplastic nature of the second polymer allows welding of the outer protective sheath of the module to the spiral wound filter component by the application of temperature in excess to the melting point (column 2, lines 44-52, and lines 58-63), therefore, it is clear that melting and fusion takes place in the attachment of the film to the module, and that heat is applied not only to the area of overlap, but to all the second polymer area. Reference '827 further teaches that the core or laminate can be helically or crosswise wound around the spiral filter module (column 2, first paragraph), therefore, overlapping laminate or films can be obtained by the process. Regarding to arguments as applied to the newly added claims (page 11, second paragraph), The core is part of the core is part (inner part) of the spiral wound filter element, and is therefore surrounded first by the membrane, and secondly by the sheath.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
